

Who is Talaria?

At Talaria, we've been helping people and communities enjoy a more certain financial future for nearly 20 years. As one of Australia's fastest growing investment managers, with over $2.5bn in funds under management, we are now looking for a new operations analyst with ideally 3+ years' experience to join our business management team.

Who we're looking for?

Whatever your academic background be it in Humanities, Arts, Sciences, Mathematics, or Engineering, and your prior experience, whether in buy-side, sell-side, investment banking or professional services, we are interested in your unique perspective, problem-solving skills and intellect.

That said you do need to have familiarity with investment operations in some capacity before. We are seeking individuals who have the following qualities:

- A curious and inquisitive mind
- An aptitude for fast learning
- A strong work ethic
- Exceptional communication skills
- A team player

To excel in this role, you should enjoy working collaboratively within a Globally experienced team that sits at the core of the Talaria business. You will be expected to seize the unique learning opportunity to cement your knowledge of exactly how funds management works from the inside out and quickly take ownership of wide-ranging critical responsibilities that reside within the Talaria business team.

The opportunity

As an operations analyst you will be an integral part of our business team, actively contributing to a myriad of responsibilities via your investigative capabilities, curiosity and commitment to solving problems.

Both investment team and our sales & marketing team will be your internal clients relying on you to provide reliable and timely support to their work. External counterpart relationship skills are vital to successfully manage multiple relationships and elicit time sensitive responses to enable effective risk management.

As part of a forward-thinking organisation with an international mindset, from day one, you will have the opportunity to contribute to exciting cross-functional projects spanning our investment and sales & marketing teams. This dynamic environment will expose you to diverse challenges and foster your professional development.

Next Steps

At Talaria Capital, we value an inclusive and diverse workplace, where individuals from all backgrounds and experiences are welcome to join our team and contribute to our continued growth and success.

Together, let's help people and communities enjoy a more certain financial future.

If this sounds like you, and you think you share our values and ambitions, and are eager to make the most of a career in funds management then apply now!

To submit your application, please visit <https://www.talariacapital.com.au/investment-operations-analyst/>

Applications will close on the 14th of March 2025, with only successful candidates being contacted.

Please note that an immediate start in our Melbourne CBD offices is required. This opportunity is only open to Australian Citizens and Permanent Residents who have full working rights in Australia.
